001.03 Intervention Information

- 001.03A Guidelines for ensuring responsible alcohol sales including but not limited to, safe customer service, prevention of confrontation and avoiding the escalation of a situation.

001.04 Delivery Standards of Program

- 001.04A The course must adhere to standard, accepted instructional design techniques and methodology, including presentation, application and feedback.
- 001.04B The program must administer a comprehensive exam to test the participant's understanding and retention of the content.
- 001.04C Exam records must be verified by an independent third party to prevent falsification of records.
- 001.04D If presented by trainers, those individuals must meet minimum standards for qualifications as presented in the application for certification.

001.05 Program Trainers

Any program utilizing a trainer shall submit their requirement for training at the time it applies to be a certified program. Such requirement shall be reviewed by the Commission prior to becoming a certified program. Such requirements shall include minimum initial and ongoing training criteria and methods to update the course materials.

002 APPLICATION TO BE A CERTIFIED PROGRAM

- 002.01 Any program wishing to become certified shall submit to the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission the following:
 - a) A copy of all training materials to be used in the course.
 - b) A listing of all approved trainers of that program located within Nebraska.
 - c) An explanation of updating the program in a timely manner.
 - d) The methods used to become/removed as a trainer of the program.
 - e) Certificate of Completion that is issued for successful completion of the course.

Such applications shall be reviewed by the Commission's Executive Director or his designee and the Nebraska State Patrol Coordinator for Alcohol Compliance. If necessary, a hearing before the Executive Director may be ordered to allow any questions or concerns of the Commission to be addressed by the applicant.

If the course is found to be insufficient after review, the applicant shall be informed of any deficiencies and allowed to revise its proposal to comply.

If the application meets the minimum requirements of the Commission the applicant shall be notified in writing by the Commission.
